ALUMNI ASSOCIATION MEETING

The Alumni Association of the college met on 21-05-2017 to discuss on the activities to be organised in the next academic year. The members present gave their suggestions of activities.

- The activities suggested were
- Campus cleaning
- Awareness programmes
- Career development session
- Personality development programme

One among these activities has to be planned and organised in the next academic year. The members shared their personal experience about Guide camp and extension activities organised by the institution when they were student teachers. Nostalgic memories made the day noteworthy and memorable.

MINUTES OF ALUMNI ASSOCIATION MEETING

- Prospective teachers are the builders of the nation in future. Every student teacher of St. Ignatius College of Education should be a dynamic, knowledgeable and responsible citizen. With this intention, the Alumni Association met the student teachers to empower them with “Techniques for Personality development”.
- Ms.Suganthi, BT Assistant, St. Ignatius Convent Hr Sec School, interacted with the student teachers on 15-07-2017 at 3.00 pm. Group activities made the session live and enthusiastic. Teacher educators thanked the Alumni Association and suggested that such interactive sessions could be conducted for every batch of student teachers.
